UPDATED PRESS RELEASE FROM DROWNING

04/22/14

The St. Croix County Sheriff's Office in coordination with the St. Croix County Medical Examiner's Office and Ramsey County Medical Examiner's Office have additional information on the death of Kristelle Marie Wolle.

The provisional report from the Ramsey County Medical Examiner's Office indicates there were no acute traumatic injuries. The blood ethanol (BAC) is reported at .216%. The cause of death has been determined to be fresh water drowning.

Investigators have determined that Wolle was out with friends on Saturday April 19, 2014. The last contact that the investigation has determined was approximately 2:19am on Sunday April 20, 2014 in the Village of Baldwin.

This incident remains under investigation by the St. Croix County Sheriff's Office and the St. Croix County Medical Examiner's Office.

Note: Further inquiries to this investigation should be directed to Captain Jeff Klatt.
